RANDOM RANTS, RAVES & THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

"Landman" Is Taylor Sheridan's Next Project

Writer Taylor Sheridan, who is behind the popular series Yellowstone, 1923, 1883, Mayor of Kingstown and Tulsa King and an executive producer on Lawman: Bass Reeves, has a new original drama in production titled Landman. The series is being described as a modern-day tale of fortune-seeking in the world of oil rigs. Based on the notable 11-part podcast Boomtown, the series is an upstairs/downstairs story of roughnecks and wildcat billionaires fueling a boom so big, it's reshaping our climate, our economy and our geopolitics. The cast for the series keeps growing and getting better, with Billy Bob Thornton at the lead, along with Ali Larter, Demi Moore and Jon Hamm.

"Blue Bloods" Final Run

I don't get why CBS has to end Blue Bloods. Isn't it one of the network's most popular series? — Carole

The Reagan family drama almost always ranks in the top primetime telecasts each week, along with other procedurals like NCIS, FBI and Fire Country. In a TV Guide Magazine exclusive interview, Tom Selleck shared how he loves the work and isn't ready to see this story end. "CBS will find an awful lot of people aren't ready to say goodbye to it. The show's more popular than ever, and I think [numbers] will increase with the interest this year. We're certainly not out of ideas." As we reported in the January issue, CBS has divided the final season into two parts — the first part is airing now and the second part airs later this fall.

NFL Headaches

I hated how the NFL games bounced around on streaming services many people didn't have this past season. It left us scrambling at the last minute to add Prime and Peacock. Any idea what the 2024 season will be like in terms of coverage? — Jim

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY!

Notable TV series, episodes, networks and/or events marking anniversaries this month.

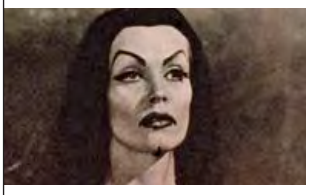

By Jeff Pfeiffer

85 YEARS AGO

NBC TELEVISION LAUNCH

America's first and oldest major broadcast network, the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) started with radio in 1926, then made its entry into television on April 30, 1939.

70 YEARS AGO

THE VAMPIRA SHOW

Maila Nurmi became the first local TV horror movie host when she appeared as her famous title character during the April 30, 1954-April 2, 1955, run of this series on Los Angeles' KABC-TV.

The 2024 schedule kicks off on Thursday, Sept. 5, with the recent Super Bowl-winning Kansas City Chiefs (no opponent slated yet). While the schedule won't be announced until early May, we do know the Philadelphia Eagles will host a game in Sao Paulo, Brazil, on Sept. 6; other international games will find the Jaguars heading to Wembley, the Bears and Vikings at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in London, and the Panthers in Munich. The NFL has an 11-year agreement with Prime for Thursday night games, which will run through 2033, and according to CNBC pays about $1 billion per year for it. We do know that Amazon secured exclusive rights to one postseason game for 2025. This year's postseason game that aired on the streaming service Peacock (the Miami Dolphins taking on the Kansas City Chiefs on Jan. 13) was reported as the "biggest livestreamed event in U.S. history" with some 23 million viewers tuning in. Disney (which owns ABC and ESPN), Comcast (which owns NBCUniversal and Peacock), CBS and FOX also share NFL broadcasting rights, so the games will be scattered among these networks and their respective streaming services. More to come on this once the schedule gets announced.

Congratulations!

Our February Reader Rewards winner of a White Mountain "Love Stories" puzzle is Roberta Johnson.

45 YEARS AGO

REAL PEOPLE

One of the earliest of what could be considered "reality television," this series aired April 18, 1979-July 4, 1984, on NBC. It spawned similarly themed shows on other networks, like ABC's That's Incredible!

40 YEARS AGO

THE DUCK FACTORY

This NBC sitcom set at an animation company ran for only 13 episodes from April 12-July 11, 1984, but it did win two Emmys and marked Jim Carrey's first starring role in a Hollywood production.

35 YEARS AGO

RESCUE 911

William Shatner hosted this docudrama series that featured reenactments of 911 emergency calls. It ran from April 18, 1989-Aug. 27, 1996, on CBS.

30 YEARS AGO

SISTER, SISTER

Identical twin sisters Tia and Tamera Mowry led this sitcom that started April 1, 1994, as part of ABC's TGIF comedy lineup. It continued there until April 28, 1995, then finished its run on The WB from Sept. 6, 1995-May 23, 1999.

ALL THAT

This sketch comedy series was a popular staple on Nickelodeon during its original run from April 16, 1994-Oct. 22, 2005. Among its early cast members were breakout stars Kenan Thompson and Kel Mitchell.

MGM TURNS 100!

The Wizard of Oz

Turner Classic Movies will be celebrating the 100th anniversary of MGM Studios this month with a large selection of MGM's greatest hits, starting with its first ever release, Ben-Hur: A Tale of the Christ, which was a major success in 1925 (as was its remake in 1959) and employed many future movie stars such as John and Lionel Barrymore, Joan Crawford, Gary Cooper, and Marion Davies. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer was founded in April 1924 when American business magnate Marcus Loew combined Metro Pictures, Goldwyn Pictures and Louis B. Mayer Pictures into one company and hired a slew of well-known actors under contract with the slogan "More stars than there are in heaven."

Throughout the month of April, TCM will air many of MGM's biggest hits including 1939's Gone With the Wind. The scope of the film, including the burning of Atlanta, was nearly unprecedented for its time, and upon its release, GWTW became the industry's highest-grossing film. Also part of the lineup and from 1939 is The Wizard of Oz, a classic among classics. The musical adaptation of L. Frank Baum's fantasy actually became more famous on the small screen than it ever did when first released in movie theaters in late summer. Generations anticipated each yearly TV broadcast showing as a family event, and every time Judy Garland's Dorothy emerged "Over the Rainbow" from sepia-toned Kansas into the Technicolor wonderland of Oz, audiences were thrilled.

Once the world's largest and most profitable studio, MGM reached its peak in the 1950s, undergoing management changes in the 1960s and then selling off many assets in the 1970s, but it is still home to some of the greatest films of all time.

5 QUESTIONS WITH "THE GOOD DOCTOR'S" FIONA GUBELMANN

By Zhanna Slor

For the last six seasons of The Good Doctor, Fiona Gubelmann has played Dr. Morgan Reznick, a no-nonsense archery enthusiast and resident at St. Bonaventure Hospital alongside Dr. Shaun Murphy (Freddie Highmore). With the seventh and final season of the show underway (airing Tuesdays on ABC), she sat down with us to answer our "5 Questions."

1 What can you tell us about this season? This season is very heartfelt, but also full of a lot of drama. There's a lot of ups and downs, and I think it's going to be a real roller coaster for fans.

2 With this being the last season, do you think the ending will be satisfying for fans? I think it's going to be a beautiful ending. The whole show has been about hope and inspiration, and I think that their goal is to leave people feeling that way. Fans are always going to want more, so it'll be unsatisfying in that way. But in regard to the stories, I think that what they're going to do will be wonderful. Liz Friedman is a great showrunner.

3 Is there anything about your character you can relate to? Morgan is very different from me, and I've really grown a lot as a person playing her. She's very direct and has a very different way of speaking to people than I do. She is this very proud and confident and unapologetic woman, and I've examined those qualities in myself and worked on strengthening them and growing into more of a woman that I'd like to be.

4 Have you ever felt starstruck by anyone? I got to work with Robin Williams on Wilfred, and he was my favorite actor growing up. It was such a surreal experience to get into hair and makeup with him at 5 in the morning and then get to spend a couple days working with him. That was one of the coolest experiences ever.

5 What would you do if you couldn't be an actress? I might have been a doctor. I was pre-med at UCLA and then I switched majors to drama. It's funny, because sometimes my husband will ask me for medical advice and I'm like, "I'm not a doctor!" But at the same time, I definitely have a lot more information now than I did prior to being on the show.

L.A. Dodgers megastar Shohei Ohtani will play DH while he heals from last fall's elbow surgery

ON WITH THE SHO

The L.A. Dodgers Hog The Spotlight With Shohei Ohtani. By Ryan A. Berenz

The Los Angeles Dodgers made the biggest splash in the offseason by signing two-time American League MVP Shohei Ohtani to a $700 million deal. They followed that up by adding Japanese right-handed pitching phenom Yoshinobu Yamamoto and his nasty curveball. After winning 100 games last year, it's World Series or bust for the Dodgers, who'll get plenty of national TV attention.

TBS opens its Tuesday primetime MLB slate April 2 with a doubleheader featuring the Cincinnati Reds at the Philadelphia Phillies and the San Francisco Giants at the Dodgers. The rest of April's lineup on TBS has the Chicago Cubs at the San Diego Padres (April 9), the Atlanta Braves at the Houston Astros (April 16) and the Astros at the Cubs (April 23).

FS1 and FOX have the bases covered on Saturdays, featuring the Dodgers at Wrigley Field to face the Cubs (FS1, April 6). An AL Championship Series rematch is in store when the Texas Rangers are at the Astros (April 13, FS1), and the Dodgers welcome the N.Y. Mets to Chavez Ravine (April 20, FS1). On April 27, FOX has either the St. Louis Cardinals at the Mets or the Reds at the Rangers, followed by the Arizona Diamondbacks at the Seattle Mariners on FS1.

Sunday Night Baseball on ESPN has the Astros visiting the Rangers April 7, followed by a fierce National League West rivalry game with the Padres at the Dodgers April 14. On April 28, ESPN airs the Mexico City Series tilt between the Astros and the Colorado Rockies at Estadio Alfredo Harp Helú, followed by the Cubs making a rare trip to Fenway Park to face the Boston Red Sox.

Secrets Of The Octopus

Sunday, April 21 on NAT GEO
NEW SERIES!

This latest in Nat Geo's franchise of Earth Day natural history series from executive producer James Cameron (following Secrets of the Whales and Secrets of the Elephants) uncovers the lives of one of the most alien-like animals on the planet: the octopus. The three-part series (all episodes air April 21), narrated by Paul Rudd, shows how these eight-armed creatures can shapeshift, and reveals how intelligent and social they are through incredible footage, some of which shows octopus behavior never before captured on film.

One such behavior is an octopus mating ritual, as seen between "Scarlet," a little octopus featured across the episodes, and a male suitor. Scarlet, due to having a scar underneath one eye, was given her name by National Geographic Explorer and expert Dr. Alex Schnell, who also features throughout the series.

Dr. Schnell and others travel to various places and meet several octopuses, and all of them are incredible. But there's a particularly amazing and touching relationship between Schnell and Scarlet — who seems to remember Schnell each time the human dives into her world — that developed quickly during the filming of this series.

"It varies from individual to individual how quickly [octopuses] want to interact with you," Schnell says, "and sometimes they never do. But Scarlet took probably a couple of hours before she felt comfortable with me, which is really quick. We have an animal here that has no way to protect [itself from a human] … and yet she wanted to interact with a species 10 times her size. That's really rare for a wild animal to want to do that."

Behavior like this and more from Scarlet and other octopuses is mind-blowing to see and offers glimpses into just how intelligent these creatures are, even if Dr. Schnell says it is still too early to compare an octopus' smarts to, say, an ape's or dolphin's.

"We're really only just scratching the surface," she explains, "and when you're looking at such a different mind, you couldn't get more alien. …

"I want the main take-home message of this series to be a shift in perspective, that while [octopuses] are very alien to a certain extent, we share similar traits with them. And hopefully that forms a bridge and a point of connection, and a growth of compassion and love, and then we want to protect what we love." — Jeff Pfeiffer

American Experience: "Poisoned Ground: The Tragedy At Love Canal"

Monday, April 22 on PBS

Revisit the story of the 1970s Love Canal disaster, one of the most notorious environmental and public health disasters in U.S. history. Unfolding like a mystery, the film begins in 1977, when residents in a small neighborhood on the east side of Niagara Falls first noticed pungent chemical odors in their homes. Soon, dozens of families began to suffer abnormally high rates of cancer, asthma, miscarriage, birth defects and more. The battle for justice, led mostly by women, created the basis for the landmark federal Superfund program.

Predator V Prey

Saturdays beginning April 20 on BBC AMERICA
NEW SERIES!

This new series looks at nature's oldest rivalry: the hunters vs. the hunted. Follow some of the world's apex predators as they use their keenly honed senses and millions of years of evolutionary instinct to stalk, capture, kill and consume their prey. But there's no such thing as a free lunch in nature. Most hunts end in failure, and bringing down a bison, wildebeest or elephant many times their size could be a fatal endeavor. Predator v Prey uses stunning wildlife footage and combines it with innovative visual effects to offer a forensic look at this link in the food chain and a moment-by-moment breakdown of how carnivores overcome the challenges of survival. — Ryan A. Berenz

THE TOP 13

A QUICK RUNDOWN OF WHAT'S NEW THIS MONTH

1 MARY & GEORGE

Fridays beginning April 5 on STARZ

NEW SERIES!

Fans of The Tudors and Bridgerton will want to consort with this intriguing new seven-part drama series based on true historical events and figures from England's Jacobean Era (1603-25).

Julianne Moore is an executive producer and stars as Mary Villiers, a woman of low birth who used her second son, George (Nicholas Galitzine, Red, White & Royal Blue), as a means to become one of the wealthiest and most influential people in England.

King James I (played by Tony Curran) is most remembered for sponsoring a translation of the Bible, the establishment of colonies in America, and the failed Gunpowder Plot against him, but he cared more for hunting and revelry than he did matters of state. James granted political favor to the Gentlemen of the Bedchamber, his most intimate associates (several of whom were also his lovers, according to this series and historical evidence).

Mary sent George to France to learn fencing, dancing and other graces in order to gain his entry into the royal court. Upon his return to England, he caught the king's eye and swiftly moved up the ranks, eventually becoming a rival to James' most favored gentleman, Robert Carr, the 1st Earl of Somerset (Laurie Davidson).

As George is played as a pawn by both his mother and Somerset's enemies, he becomes increasingly driven by a lust for power and ensnared in the dangerous treachery of London's elite. — Ryan A. Berenz

2 FAR HAVEN

Sunday, April 14 on INSP

ORIGINAL FILM!

"If standing up for what I believe in makes me a coward, then so be it," Hunter Braddock (Bailey Chase) tells his two children in this follow-good-morals Western. In 1887, after serving two years in prison, the virtuous and wrongfully accused Braddock moves back to the Arizona town of Far Haven to start over with his children. Things don't go well, and one of the only kindred spirits he finds is loner Abraham Chavez (Longmire's A Martinez). "It's such a clear story about redemption and about the power of courage under difficult circumstances," shares Martinez, who learned how to ride a horse from John Wayne. It's a story that resonated with Martinez not only for its message, but also the film's historical accuracy depicting a massacre that actually happened. "I was aware of that outrageous event and I thought it was great that [producer and director] Gary Wheeler chose to bring that into the story. … It's not something that gets referenced very often in the culture [and is known], unless you're an Indigenous person and you have it seared in your memory."

3 MR. BATES VS. THE POST OFFICE

Sundays beginning April 7 on PBS

NEW SERIES!

Starring Toby Jones, Monica Dolan and Julie Hesmondhalgh, this four-part British drama is based on the true story of the British Post Office scandal in which hundreds of post office employees were wrongly prosecuted for theft and fraud because of a faulty computer system that created cash discrepancies across the U.K., later classified as a miscarriage of justice.

Kristen Kish

TOP CHEF RETURNS WITH KRISTEN KISH AS HOST

Supersized Episodes, Epic Challenges, And Lots And Lots Of Cheese. By Barb Oates

Chefs from around the country headed to the cheesiest state in the nation — Wisconsin — for the 21st season of Bravo's Top Chef (Wednesdays beginning March 20). This season marks a few firsts, including supersized episodes, with the biggest being Kristen Kish (Top Chef Season 10 winner and host of Restaurants at the End of the World) taking over as host, as Padma Lakshmi left the show after 17 years.

"I'm excited to shake things up," Kish shares. "I could not be more thrilled."

The location couldn't have been easier, as the Midwest is home to the Korean-born chef, who was adopted and raised in Michigan and attended college in Chicago. She knew she would be in her comfort zone in Milwaukee and Madison, where the majority of filming took place. "It kind of feels like a homecoming in more ways than one."

A creative problem solver from an early age, Kish laughed when reflecting on her earliest days in the kitchen, preparing a chocolate pudding she served to her parents. "I remember what my parents told me when they tried it: 'Kristen, we're so proud, we love it.' But it wasn't delicious, but they're my parents.'" The chef confessed that her secret ingredient for making the pudding look like chocolate, when she didn't have chocolate, was soy sauce.

Kish, however, is first to admit that the series is not about her or her fellow judges Tom Colicchio and Gail Simmons, but rather it's the human narrative of the cheftestants that fuels the popularity of the series — the stories of their lives, their professional backgrounds, and their talent and poise in a competitive scenario.

THE CHEFTESTANTS

At stake for the 15 talented chefs from across the country is not only the title of Top Chef, but also $250,000 cash, a feature in Food & Wine magazine and an appearance at the Food & Wine Classic in Aspen. The mix of chefs includes James Beard nominees, Michelin-starred kitchen alums and one former Top Chef finalist, Kevin D'Andrea (from Top Chef France). Milwaukee's own Dan Jacobs, a local celeb of sorts who competed on Beat Bobby Flay, is also part of the mix.

NEW RULES & SHOCKING TWISTS

This season there will be no immunity given for a Quickfire Challenge win, but instead a cash prize will be awarded. The winner of the Elimination Challenge, however, will receive immunity, which means the cheftestant can't be sent home in the following Elimination Challenge. Adding some pressure, Colicchio and Simmons will also lend their expertise as they join Kish at Quickfire Challenges during the back half of the season.

THE CHALLENGES

We were on set for a blisteringly hot day at a cheese festival (airing April 10), where the chefs had to create a cheese-inspired dish with some of Wisconsin's award-winning cheesemakers serving as judges. A few favorites of mine (can't disclose the chefs) included a fried potato and cheese curd covered in gravy, and a gorgonzola crab Rangoon salad with rice chips. Challenges also involved the Milwaukee Brewers Famous Racing Sausages, dishes inspired by architect and Wisconsin native Frank Lloyd Wright, chaos cuisine involving The Bear's Matty Matheson, an old-fashioned Door County fish boil, and a Restaurant Wars that went back to the basics.

FAVORITES RETURNING

Former Top Chef winners, finalists and favorites also make appearances throughout the season, including Sara Bradley, Joe Flamm, Jeremy Ford, Gregory Gourdet, Stephanie Izard, Carla Hall, Edward Lee, Mei Lin, Buddha Lo, Kwame Onwuachi, Shota Nakajima, Amar Santana, Justin Sutherland and Bryan Voltaggio.

THE AFTERSHOWS

The online-only aftershow The Dish With Kish will premiere directly after each episode on BravoTV.com, where Kish will welcome a Top Chef alum and together they will break down all the culinary action from the episode while creating a new dish inspired by that episode's challenge. Also, Colicchio's online-only series Top Chef: Last Chance Kitchen returns for Season 13 on March 27.

5 THE NEW YORK TIMES PRESENTS: BROKEN HORSES

Friday, April 26 on FX

The "Sport of Kings" is a sport in crisis. Twelve horses died at Churchill Downs in Louisville during events surrounding the 2023 Kentucky Derby, forcing the track to suspend racing to investigate safety. A horse was euthanized on the track in a Preakness Stakes preliminary race at Baltimore's Pimlico Race Course last year. Two horses — both with the same trainer — suffered catastrophic leg injuries and had to be euthanized at Belmont Park in New York during the 2023 Belmont Stakes weekend. This episode of the investigative series examines the systemic problems and questionable practices of breeders, owners, trainers, veterinarians and tracks that are pushing racehorses beyond their limits.

6 THE 100TH: BILLY JOEL AT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN — THE GREATEST ARENA RUN OF ALL TIME

Sunday, April 14 on CBS

It was Dec. 14, 1978, when Billy Joel performed at New York City's Madison Square Garden for the first time. A ticket for an orchestra seat cost $11.50. His sixth studio album, 52nd Street, was released that fall and was his first record to hit No. 1 on the Billboard charts. More than 45 years later, Joel has become as much of a fixture at MSG as the New York Knicks or Rangers, and his current residency there began in January 2014. This two-hour special, taped March 28 at Joel's 100th consecutive monthly performance at the venue, is the artist's first ever concert to air on a broadcast TV network. His 150th and final show at the Garden is scheduled for July 25. — Ryan A. Berenz

7 THE SYMPATHIZER

Sundays beginning April 14 on HBO

NEW LIMITED SERIES!

"I am a spy, a sleeper, a spook, a man of two faces." So begins the source material for director Park Chan-wook's (Oldboy) adaptation of Viet Thanh Nguyen's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel. Part thriller, part satire, this seven-episode limited series depicts the turbulent moral journey of a nameless antihero (Hoa Xuande) who acts as a Communist spy while exiled to America after the fall of Saigon. Robert Downey Jr. appears in multiple guises as colorful figures throughout the episodes, and Sandra Oh costars.

Dolly Lewis

8 SIGHT UNSEEN

Wednesdays beginning April 3 on THE CW

NEW SERIES!

This unusual Canadian crime drama follows former homicide detective Tess (Dolly Lewis), who is forced to leave her job after being diagnosed clinically blind. After being introduced to a visual assistant (Agam Darshi) who can "see" for her with an app but struggles with agoraphobia, Tess begins to help the police department with solving crimes while trying to navigate a new world without most of her vision.

"Ninety percent of people who identify as blind still see something, so we wanted to show that perspective," said Karen Troubetzkoy, who cowrote the show with her half sister Niko. "The shooting ended up being multilayered and kind of complex, because there were three different streams of footage: the POV of Dolly, who plays Tess; her sight-impaired POV, which is sort of like a first-person shooter game; and then the regular show. So, it was like three times as challenging as we expected. And then on top of that, we had the experiment of having our two lead actors, who are in most scenes together, never in the same room."

"I have my own issues with divergence in my sight, so I have a jumping-off point for getting into the character of Tess," Lewis added. "We humans talk so much in the language of behavior. And if you see somebody just run into the table, you assume that they didn't see it. So, it's like a funny interplay of thinking: What's the nuance of the psychology of not being able to see? And what are the very basic building blocks, physically, of not being able to see? It was a wonderful challenge." — Zhanna Slor

9 THERESA CAPUTO: BEYOND THE READINGS

Thursdays beginning April 25 on LIFETIME

NEW SERIES!

This new companion series to Theresa Caputo: Raising Spirits explores Theresa's gift through behind-the-scenes moments, expanded scenes with never-before-seen footage and follow-up interviews with participants from the main series. Describing her "gift" to us, she shares that one of the best examples she can give is the movie The Sixth Sense. "That's how I grew up as a child. I would see things, sense things, but I thought everyone did. And then I was like, 'OK, you didn't see that? You didn't know that?' And Ghost with Demi Moore and Whoopi Goldberg. It's the same way how Whoopi Goldberg would be like, 'I don't understand that. Why are you telling me to sit?' It's the same thing for me, how she would just feel and sense things, but not necessarily always see something. So those are the two movies that best describe how I connect with spirits."

10 THE BARNES BUNCH

Thursdays beginning April 11 on WE TV

NEW SERIES!

This new reality series follows NBA champion/podcaster Matt Barnes and his fiancée, model Anansa Sims, as they blend their two families and six children aged 5 to 15. Along with their supportive parents, including Sims' mother, former supermodel Beverly Johnson, the couple will take fans and viewers inside their home and very active lives as they navigate fame, love and parenting.

The day-to-day life of filming a reality show has its challenges, however, especially with such a big family. "It's just pure chaos," said Sims. "Our house is loud every day, and you add the cameras in there, on until bedtime. But the kids are so thrilled. They love it."

"I think they feel like this is kind of their shot to be cool and be on TV and brag to their friends," Barnes said. "The twins, my kids, the older ones, are good at basketball. They're obviously better than us now and they definitely let us know about it. It was a little humbling.

"There's not a ton of Black family love out there, so to speak, or Black family positivity," Barnes added, about the inspiration behind the new show. "We hope that The Barnes Bunch can be a small piece of hopefully something that'll start being bigger." — Zhanna Slor

11 ELKHORN

Thursdays beginning April 11 on INSP

NEW SERIES!

While many Americans are familiar with the man who charged up San Juan Hill with his Rough Riders, became the country's youngest president and is immortalized on Mount Rushmore, few have heard of Theodore Roosevelt's adventurous early days. In this 10-episode drama series, newcomer Mason Beals plays our "Cowboy President," bringing to life his days on the frontier. "I got really excited by his flaws," the Idaho-raised Beals tells us. "He's only human and dealt with his grief in a not-so-traditional way and was somewhat blind to the pain he was experiencing — he's an asthmatic with terrible eyesight and digestive issues. Teddy Roosevelt is an incredibly determined individual, but sometimes that determination can get in the way of the right decision. I think that struggle comes through in the show in a really entertaining way and I'm excited for people to see it."

Thank You, Goodnight: The Bon Jovi Story

Available April 26

This four-part docuseries goes deep on the big-hair, big-sound band famous for such anthemic hits as "Wanted Dead or Alive" and "Livin' on a Prayer." Frontman Jon Bon Jovi talks about the project — and the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame group's four-decade career.

ON SHOWING BOTH HIGHS AND LOWS

"One thing we agreed upon on day one was this was not going to be a puff piece. And I think that makes the bonds deeper — being able to truly speak the truth without fear of repercussion or bruised egos."

ON CALLING THE SERIES THANK YOU, GOODNIGHT

"The ambiguity of the title is, what does the future hold for me and for my band? And that's a health-related question. Although I'm making great strides, we faced something I didn't expect, which is vocal cord surgery. I'm doing very well and [recently] sang for my first time in public."

ON GRASPING BON JOVI'S IMPACT

"I received a two-page handwritten letter from President Zelenskyy telling me what "It's My Life" has meant to the people of Ukraine. Holy @#$%! I was just writing that coming from who and where I was at that time. And now, to realize the effect some of these songs have had on cultures is humbling. But that is also what makes me a fan and why I listen to songwriters all the time." — Robert Edelstein

Bravo royalty Lisa Vanderpump is used to running the show. But in this new docusoap, the Real Housewives of Beverly Hills survivor is learning a new set of rules as she opens a high-end hot spot in the French countryside. Expect tons of interactions with guests, and employee clashes.

A dangerous game of cat and mouse with thousands of lives on the line is at the forefront of this new thriller series starring Elisabeth Moss, who plays shapeshifting spy Imogen Salter. Franklin
