RANDOM RANTS & RAVES

From The Editor: Fall TV Chaos

As expected, the Hollywood strikes are wreaking some havoc on the TV landscape. Our September issue saw a few last-minute network changes that deserve noting here to avoid any confusion.

- Feud: Capote vs. the Swans*: This highly anticipated follow-up to Ryan Murphy's original Feud: Bette and Joan is no longer planned (at least for now) for the fall TV season.
- The Golden Bachelor* on ABC got a premiere date and a time slot of Thursday, Sept. 28, at 8pm ET/PT, and immediately following will be two hours of Bachelor in Paradise.
- Dancing With the Stars*, which was originally banished to ABC's streaming service Disney+, will return to the ABC lineup, as well as to Disney+.

"Yellowstone" On Broadcast? How Is That Going To Work?

How on earth is Yellowstone going to be able to air on CBS as part of the network's strike-proof fall schedule? With so much profanity, it would seem that the episodes will need to be heavily edited to conform to broadcast network standards. I know they're only importing it from Paramount Network because the strike has limited their options, but it feels like an odd choice. — Jake

A hit is a hit! And there's no bigger hit than Yellowstone. The censors will have to work overtime to clean this one up, and we know Beth (Kelly Reilly) will be bleeped the most, but there's plenty of riveting drama aside from the language.

What Happened To Chanel On "Ridiculousness"?

I have a few questions I hope you can answer. Can you tell me what

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY!

Notable TV series, episodes, networks and/or events celebrating anniversaries this month.

By Jeff Pfeiffer

65 YEARS AGO

77 SUNSET STRIP

ABC's private detective drama with the very catchy theme song, led by Emmy nominee Efrem Zimbalist Jr. and Edd Byrnes as breakout character "Kookie," debuted Oct. 10, 1958, and ran until Feb. 7, 1964.

50 YEARS AGO

KOJAK

Telly Savalas received an Emmy nod as Tootsie Pop-loving NYPD detective Theo Kojak in the March 1973 TV movie The Marcus-Nelson Murders, which served as the pilot for the legendary crime drama Kojak, which ran Oct. 24, 1973-March 18, 1978, on CBS. Savalas received two more acting Emmy nominations, winning one, and was also nominated for directing an episode.

The Golden Bachelor

happened to Chanel West Coast on MTV's Ridiculousness? Is she coming back? Would also like to know the same on Kay Adams on the NFL Network — did she get fired or is she coming back? — Del

After almost 12 years hosting, the 34-year-old Chanel West Coast exited her role on Ridiculousness in favor of taking on an executive producer role, developing both scripted and unscripted programming for MTV Entertainment. This was announced back in March, when she posted on Instagram: "I'm SO excited for this next chapter! To the fans who are sad I will no longer be on Ridiculousness don't worry … I have my own docu series TV show coming out soon!" As for Kay Adams leaving NFL Network, her contract was up and the 37-year-old media star moved on to FanDuel (an online gaming, sportsbook and live sports streaming service), where she started her second year hosting Up & Adams.

Movies A Little Wonky

There have been some strange things occurring in the movies section recently. The month and network repeat unnecessarily — we all know the August issue is for August movie dates so you don't need to keep repeating it. Also, some random titles show up not in alphabetical order; for example, a movie title could be Silent Killer and it wasn't in the "S" section but rather in the "A" section. Why is that happening? — Mark

Thanks for your note. We apologize for these recent oddities. We did a major database change and have had several hiccups as a result of this. We are still working on correcting the repetition so we can list more movies, but we have resolved odd movie titles showing up randomly. You've got a good eye, as we thought we caught them all! Sending you a free puzzle magazine for alerting us to additional ones. Thanks for your patience.

Congratulations!

Our August Reader Rewards winner of a White Mountain Movie Classics puzzle was Warren Johnson.

"ADAM" TV MOVIE

First airing on NBC Oct. 10, 1983, to a large audience, this drama about the kidnapping and murder of 6-year-old Adam Walsh re-aired twice more over the next two years. In each broadcast, it was accompanied by requests for aid in finding other missing children and was successful in helping find several of them.

35 YEARS AGO

EMPTY NEST

The 1988 fall TV season got off to a little later start because of a writers strike, but when the new network lineups began in October, this spinoff of The Golden Girls starring Emmy winner Richard Mulligan was one of the notable titles. It aired Oct. 8, 1988-June 17, 1995.

ROSEANNE

The original run of this classic sitcom led by Emmy winner Roseanne Barr and Emmy nominee John Goodman was from Oct. 18, 1988-May 20, 1997, on ABC.

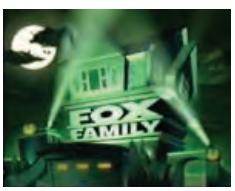

30 YEARS AGO

DIAGNOSIS MURDER

Dick Van Dyke and his son, Barry Van Dyke, led this CBS medical crime/drama mystery series that aired Oct. 29, 1993-May 11, 2001.

25 YEARS AGO

13 DAYS OF HALLOWEEN

Freeform's beloved October programming stunt, 31 Nights of Halloween, first launched as 13 Days of Halloween on Oct. 19, 1998, when the network was known as Fox Family Channel.

Alfonso Ribeiro and Julianne Hough

ABC WELCOMES BACK "DANCING WITH THE STARS"

The iconic dance competition, which has been going strong since 2005 pairing celebrities with professional dancers, is back for Season 32 on ABC (Tuesdays beginning Sept. 26) with plenty of familiar faces as well as some new ones. Carrie Ann Inaba, Bruno Tonioli and Derek Hough run the judges table, following the retirement and subsequent passing of beloved judge Len Goodman, who died just three days short of his 79th birthday. Previous host Tyra Banks is moving on to different projects, and Alfonso Ribeiro will replace her as host, with professional dancer Julianne Hough cohosting in the skybox. "Both Julianne and I have a love of the show," Ribeiro said. "I have been a huge fan of the show from the very beginning. I've done it from many different positions: as a celebrity, as a guest performer, as a judge and now emcee on the floor. I've kind of done it all."

Though the show has remained relatively the same in its format since the outset, Ribeiro shared that Season 31 (which only streamed on Disney+) was a bit more challenging behind the scenes and he is looking forward to DWTS returning to ABC. "Last season was probably the most tense working environment for me in that there were also no commercial breaks. Because of that, there's no time to do anything other than be onstage."

So how is Ribeiro preparing for his new role? "It's all about being prepared for anything to happen. So lots of little things that as a host you have to be aware of. That's well outside of just delivering the dialogue. It's week to week," he explained. "You don't know what's going to happen in live television, who's going to be there, who's going to be gone, what kind of spots are opening up. There's not a lot of lead time on any of it. That's the beautiful aspect of live TV, that energy of it just keeps going and you're on the train and you don't stop until it reaches its destination."

Celebs competing this season include actors Alyson Hannigan, Matt Walsh, Mira Sorvino and Barry Williams, reality TV stars Ariana Madix and Charity Lawson, model/actor Tyson Beckford, singer Jason Mraz and NFL star Adrian Peterson. — Zhanna Slor

100 GREATEST ROCK STARS

It doesn't matter if you're a rock fan, a metal head, or a pop, country or you-name-your-music-passion person; everyone should know these legends, but where do they rank? SPIN Magazine and AXS TV join forces to bravely give a number to the top artists who embody that "rock star spirit" in the new series SPIN 100 Greatest Rock Stars, airing Mondays on AXS TV beginning Oct. 2.

Over 12 weeks, host Mark Steines (Entertainment Tonight) will spotlight each artist via video clips of their biggest hits, live concert clips and interviews with other artists speaking on their history, starting with the 100-91 rankings and working the list down to the final episode, which explosively reveals the final Top 5. Inspired by SPIN founder Bob Guccione Jr.'s landmark "100 Greatest Rock Stars Since That Was a Thing" list, you'll see a star-studded, sometimes irreverent and often surprising odyssey, spotlighting trailblazers such as Elvis (spoiler, he's No. 100), Kurt Cobain, Jimi Hendrix, Stevie Nicks, Tom Petty, Jimmy Page, Jon Bon Jovi, Joan Jett, Syd Barrett, David Bowie, Bob Marley, Gwen Stefani, Grace Slick and more.

Jimi Hendrix

"The problem with lists like this is they are invariably BS. So our prime objective was to make sure we didn't do a BS list," tells Guccione. "A rock star is, perhaps by definition, undefinable. They just are. They're luminescent. Even when, in some cases, they didn't want to be. I'm excited to bring this list to life with AXS TV! They have a great audience of dedicated and knowledgeable music fans. They'll let us know what they think!"

As for No. 1, we're quite confident you'll never see it coming! — Barb Oates

5 QUESTIONS WITH BRIAN AUSTIN GREEN

By Zhanna Slor

Best known for playing David Silver on the iconic '90s drama Beverly Hills, 90210 (or perhaps for his long roller-coaster relationship with Megan Fox), Brian Austin Green can now add reality TV to his vast repertoire of projects, having competed on Season 30 of Dancing With the Stars with girlfriend Sharna Burgess in 2021, and, more recently, joining the cast of Season 2 on Special Forces: World's Toughest Test, which premieres Monday, Sept. 25, on FOX. The very down-to-earth actor gladly answered our "5 Questions."

1 What was the most challenging part of your time on Special Forces? I think it's the entire thing. The challenges are tough and grueling, but when you get to the barracks and you realize, "Oh, this is my life for the next eight days," you realize, OK, there's no such thing as running water. Life as I know it and have lived for 50 years is completely different. So now it's just a matter of surviving, surviving this way with these people. Most of them I've never met, but I equate it sort of to a plane crash. You can't possibly have that connection with anybody else in your life. It's a very unique experience. I didn't go in feeling like, "Oh, I need to win this. I need to make it all the way through this to prove something." I was honestly in it for myself. I was really curious to see physically what I was still capable of.

2 You've been acting since you were very young. How did you originally get into it? A kid that I rode the bus with to elementary school was a commercial actor. He always had video games and money, and I thought, "I want to do that. What is this thing?" I met with his agent and started taking acting classes and the rest is history.

3 If you had to pick any other career besides acting, what would it be? Music. I'd be a drummer for sure. My dad was a musician. I grew up in music. The 90210 writers followed my life a little bit that way; they knew that I was into music, and they slowly started incorporating music into the character.

4 What about a career that wasn't in the arts? I'd be a contractor. I absolutely love DIY building. It's become such a huge passion for me, so I would absolutely be doing construction.

5 What are your favorite shows or movies of all time? Jaws is one of them, just because that has got to be the best example of a director making the absolute best out of a really difficult situation and making a movie, performance-wise, that to this day stands up on its own. It's so good.

When I was a kid, Three's Company was a big show for me. And I was really into English humor, like Fawlty Towers and Benny Hill and things like that.

Pitcher Kyle Gibson leads the Baltimore Orioles into unfamiliar territory: the playoffs.

O IS FOR OCTOBER

The Birds From Baltimore Migrate To Baseball's Postseason. By Ryan A. Berenz

The past 25 years haven't been kind to Baltimore Orioles fans, with their club getting into the playoffs only three times during that span. The Orioles' last World Series title came 40 years ago when Cal Ripken Jr. was MVP in his second Major League season. The O's won a meager 52 games in 2021, but their 83 wins in '22 and their continued ascension in '23 is a feel-good story that's still not finished.

The Orioles were battling with the Tampa Bay Rays for the AL East crown, while the Minnesota Twins should capture the AL Central title. The defending World Series champion Houston Astros have won five of the last six AL West races, but they were locked in a tight battle with the Seattle Mariners and Texas Rangers for the top spot and may have to settle for a Wild Card.

Division races in the NL are a little clearer with the Atlanta Braves taking the East, the Milwaukee Brewers expected to claim the Central and the L.A. Dodgers owning the West for the 10th time in 11 seasons. The Philadelphia Phillies should take the top Wild Card spot, with the Arizona Diamondbacks, San Francisco Giants and Chicago Cubs (!) hoping to extend their seasons.

There are some conspicuous absences this fall, with the disappointing Yankees and Mets leaving New Yorkers without a playoff qualifier for the first time since 2014. The L.A. Angels didn't trade superstar Shohei Ohtani in the hope of playing in October, but the Halos will miss the playoffs for the ninth straight year and Ohtani will likely play his last game as an Angel when the regular season ends Oct. 1.

The best-of-three-game Wild Card Series begin Oct. 3 on ESPN, ESPN2 and ABC with No. 3 seeds vs. No. 6 seeds and No. 4 seeds vs. No. 5 seeds. The top two seeds in each league automatically advance to the best-of-five-game Division Series beginning Oct. 7 on TBS, FOX and FS1. League Championship Series start with the AL Oct. 15 on FOX/FS1 and the NL Oct. 16 on TBS. Game 1 of the World Series is scheduled for Oct. 27 on FOX, with a potential Game 7 set for Nov. 4.

THE DEPTH CHART

NBA Basketball

The regular season tips off Oct. 24 with a TNT doubleheader featuring the L.A. Lakers at the defending champion Denver Nuggets, followed by the Phoenix Suns at the Golden State Warriors.

College Football

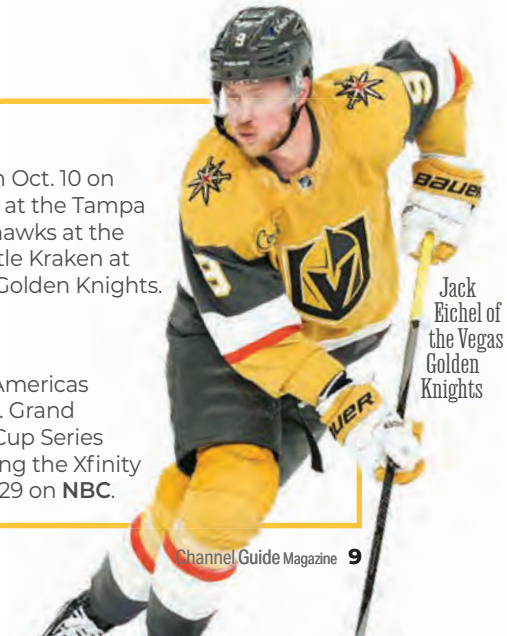

Top matchups include Texas vs. Oklahoma in the Red River Showdown in Dallas Oct. 7 on ABC, USC at Notre Dame Oct. 14 on NBC and Florida vs. Georgia in Jacksonville Oct. 28 on CBS.

NHL Hockey

The puck drops on the NHL season Oct. 10 on ESPN with the Nashville Predators at the Tampa Bay Lightning, the Chicago Blackhawks at the Pittsburgh Penguins and the Seattle Kraken at the Stanley Cup champion Vegas Golden Knights.

Auto Racing

Invasion Of The Scary Movies!

Celebrate The Spooky Season With A Variety Of Frightful Flicks This Month. By Jeff Pfeiffer

Whether you like films that are kind of scary, really scary, funny scary or all the above, you'll be covered nearly every day in October.

Of special note are several legendary horror movies that are marking anniversaries this year, which will be celebrated with special airings on AMC: Rosemary's Baby (1968), which turned 55 on June 12; The Exorcist (1973), which marks 50 years since its theatrical premiere on Dec. 26; the original Halloween (1978), which turns 45 on Oct. 27; and the adaptations of Stephen King's The Dead Zone and Christine, both of which turn 40 this year (they premiered in theaters Oct. 21 and Dec. 9, 1983, respectively).

Read on for more about those, as well as other horrific highlights that are worth tuning in to during the lead-up to Halloween — if you dare:

31 Nights of Halloween — Oct. 1-31 on Freeform. Spooky movies most of the day, every day, through Halloween. Oct. 1 highlights include Tim Burton's The Nightmare Before Christmas (1993) and Hocus Pocus (1993), both celebrating their 30th anniversaries this year.

I Married a Witch (1942) & The Ghost and Mrs. Muir (1947) — Oct. 1 on MOVIES!

The Phantom of the Opera (1925) — Oct. 1 (late-night) on TCM. The Lon Chaney-led silent classic.

55th Anniversary

AMC Celebrates: Rosemary's Baby — Oct. 2 on AMC. Following an airing of the 1968 thriller led by Mia Farrow will be the linear premiere of Cursed Films: "Rosemary's Baby."

Hammer Horror Icon-a-Thon — Oct. 2 on MOVIES! Nearly 18 hours of creepy films from Britain's famed Hammer Studios, including iconic Peter Cushing/Christopher Lee pairings like Horror of Dracula (1958) and The Mummy (1959).

Creepy Cinema — Tuesday nights on TCM beginning Oct. 3. Evenings of scary movies divided into two themes, with Oct. 3 featuring "Hitchcock & De Palma" (Alfred Hitchcock and his lifelong fan, director Brian De Palma) with 1943's Shadow of a Doubt and 1980's Dressed to Kill, followed by "Women in Horror" with late-night titles like Cat People (1942) and The Wasp Woman (1960).

Bad Kids MOVIES! — Oct. 4 on MOVIES! Five movies about evil little brats, including Village of the Damned (1960) and The Bad Seed (1956).

TCM Spotlight: Gothic Movies — Friday nights on TCM beginning Oct. 6. Themed evenings, beginning with films based on gothic literature, such as Wuthering Heights (1939).

Fear on Friday — Fridays on IFC beginning Oct. 6. A variety of horror movies airs each Friday, including The Devil's Rejects (2005) and Ghost Rider (2007).

Afternoon of Monster Movies — Oct. 7 on MOVIES! Five creature features, including The Blob (1958) and The Thing From Another World (1951).

45th Anniversary

Kelsey Grammer

FRASIER RETURNS!

Who Will And Won't Be Joining Him For His Next Chapter?

1 FRASIER

Thursday, Oct. 12 on Paramount+
Tuesday, Oct. 17 on CBS
(First two episodes only on CBS, at least for now)
RETURNING SERIES!

What a welcome return to the airways! Dr. Frasier Crane (Kelsey Grammer), a psychiatrist and Seattle radio personality who soothingly helped on-air callers with their personal dilemmas, is back in business.

The original Emmy darling aired on NBC from 1993 to 2004, and chronicled the life of the doctor, who had plenty of his own troubles to contend with, from his dating life to his challenging family. The series' cast of colorful characters was indeed its charm — Frasier's hardened retired cop father, Martin (the late John Mahoney), who lived with him along with his Jack Russell terrier Eddie, and his competitive practicing psychiatrist little brother Niles (David Hyde Pierce) made for a family dynamic worth studying.

"[Frasier Crane has] lived a kind of a parallel life with me," Grammer shared with The Times when the series return was announced. "Now we've found our way back to one another. This character, who is obviously fictional, has a life outside of mine that is just as believable and palpable as the one I've actually lived — and I'm good at playing him. We were funny together."

The 10-episode new season was filmed in front of a live audience at Paramount Studios in Los Angeles and follows Frasier in the next chapter of his life as he returns to Boston, where we were first introduced to him on Cheers. When we last left Frasier, we thought he boarded a plane to start a new job in San Francisco, but really he landed in Chicago determined to give love a second chance with Charlotte (Laura Linney). In Boston he has new challenges to face, new relationships to forge and an old dream or two to finally fulfill.

While David Hyde Pierce is not returning, Nicholas Lyndhurst is joining the cast as Frasier's college buddy and now university professor Alan Cornwall.

"British, boozy and larger than life, Alan has an intellect on par with Frasier's — if only he ever felt like using it," the character description touts. "Alan's mischievous streak might be just what Frasier could use to shake up his routine, while Frasier's thoughtful guidance might help Alan find some of the direction he's been missing in his own life."

Other Frasier alums are coming back, however. Bebe Neuwirth will guest-star in the revival, reprising her role as Lilith, Frasier's ex-wife, and Peri Gilpin will also pop up, once again playing Roz, a producer of Frasier's radio show. There's been no word, meanwhile, of Jane Leeves returning to play Daphne, Niles' physical therapist wife.

Joining the party are Jack Cutmore-Scott as Freddy Crane, Frasier's son; Anders Keith as David, Daphne and Niles' son; Jess Salgueiro as Eve, Freddy's roommate; and Toks Olagundoye as Olivia, Alan's colleague and the head of the university psychology department.

2 FOUND

Tuesdays beginning Oct. 3 on NBC

NEW SERIES!

In the opening moments of this chilling new drama, a desperate, scantily clad Gabi Mosely (Shameless' Shanola Hampton) bangs on a metal door asking the man who answers for help. Once inside, it's clear she's no damsel in distress: She delivers a right hook to the man and quickly reunites the young boy he's kidnapped with his grateful parents. All in a day's work.

"Gabi and her team look for the missing people that the rest of the world seem to not care about," explains executive producer Nkechi Okoro Carroll. "Gabi finds the ones who have slipped through the cracks and fights to bring them home."

A public relations specialist privately hired in missing-persons cases (and often at least one step ahead of the police), Gabi also brings a very personal skill set to her crisis management work.

"Gabi is a victim herself who was abducted [20 years before]; no one came to look for her and she had to save herself. It's her life's mission to make sure no one has to go through what she went through," said Hampton in a pre-actors strike interview.

Her four colleagues — compassionate Margaret (Kelli Williams), sharp Zeke (Arlen Escarpeta), fearless Dhan (Karan Oberoi) and fierce Lacey (Gabrielle Walsh) — are equally astute and committed. Expect to learn their own personal ties to these types of heinous crimes.

And it's Gabi's traumatic backstory (through which we meet Mark-Paul Gosselaar's Sir character) that gets revealed in the show's eerie flashbacks. "You will see how Gabi was abducted, how she saved herself and other key moments throughout the first season that help you understand her as a character," Hampton said. That's abundantly clear in the first episode's chilling final moments.

3 LOTERÍA LOCA

Mondays beginning Oct. 2 on CBS

NEW SERIES!

Jane the Virgin's Jaime Camil is thrilled to bring the action-packed Lotería game and culture to American households and to what he believes is an underserved audience as host of the Latin card game of chance, where contestants could win up to $1 million. Here he shares more with us on the game.

As the host and executive producer behind this new game show, how familiar were you with the Lotería game and its origins?
Jaime Camil: I grew up playing Lotería with my family and friends back in México. I could say, without a shadow of a doubt, that every single Mexican family owned and still owns a Lotería game. I would even venture to say that there is no Mexican in the world who doesn't know what Lotería is, and not only Mexicans! It is a Latin American game that's huge and recognized by any Spanish-speaking person out there. Furthermore, Lotería is not only a game, it is a culture and is one of the many representations of México and the LatAm culture broadly known both in the USA and Europe. There are Lotería restaurants, Lotería clothing and accessories collections — IT IS HUGE!

Could you walk us through a few of the more stressful/exciting parts of the game? Where do the risks come in? Well, it is after all a game of chance similar to bingo, but in Lotería Loca, the contestant that moves on to the final round has the chance to win $1 million, every single night! In addition to having our own Lotería cards with BIG money behind them (designed by our team with animation and sound), some of them have exciting and fun challenges with them, making the game even more fun and engaging, not only to the contestants but also to the folks at home watching. Every time a contestant gets a Lotería, we add even more money to their bank, from $10,000 to $25,000, and they have a chance to walk away with the money they have accumulated or, if the contestant has the luck and guts to continue and uncover all 16 cards, they become instant millionaires! However, there are four "bad" cards with four mean-looking skulls! You have to stay away from them because each time you get one of those, you lose one of your four lives and half your bank! Yikes! And, if you uncover all four of them, you leave the game with nothing … IT IS NERVE-WRACKING, BELIEVE ME!!! You think you're here to say a number and uncover what card is behind it?? Ha! Think again!!!

What makes you most nervous serving as host? Feeling the anxiety and excitement of the contestants! I love connecting with them, making them feel at home and comfortable. Truly, the whole show and production team is here for them; we are all rooting for them and sincerely want them to succeed! So, when they win, we celebrate with them and dance and jump up and down but, when they lose everything, it is really heartbreaking for me and for all of us!

5 BAD ROMANCE: THE VICKY WHITE STORY

Saturday, Oct. 21 on LIFETIME

ORIGINAL FILM!

While this ripped-from-the-headlines story is plenty interesting, and we'll get to that in a minute, the casting of this original drama is worth noting, as The Goldbergs' Wendi McLendon-Covey is almost unrecognizable as divorced Alabama prison corrections officer Vicky White. Playing opposite her is Donald Sutherland's other famous son (Donald's got four sons) — Rossif Sutherland — who plays 38-year-old prisoner Casey White. True to actual events, the two develop a secret relationship, which leads to Vicky risking everything to break him out of jail. "When Wendi first heard about this true story as it broke nationally, she immediately felt there was much more to the story," tells executive producer Tom Patricia (Wendi is also an executive producer on the film). "What would make a woman who was so greatly admired by her family and friends, and was a model employee, do something so drastic and extreme? ... We really wanted to dig deeper into the backstory. It was clear that Vicky's life wasn't what she wanted it to be, that she was desperately trying to find her own happiness and that every seemingly crazy thing she did, she did for love." At its core, this is a wild love story gone horribly wrong. — Barb Oates

6 TRANSPLANT

Thursdays beginning Oct. 12 on NBC

SEASON PREMIERE!

The third season of the hit medical drama about a Syrian doctor who flees his war-torn homeland for Canada — where he must redo all his medical training — finds Dr. Bashir "Bash" Hamed (Hamza Haq) continuing his journey to start over. While pursuing Canadian citizenship for himself and his younger sister, Amira (Sirena Gulamgaus), Bash closely examines who he's becoming in his adopted country. At the same time, he and his colleagues continue to adapt to change and understand how they fit in, both within and beyond the walls of York Memorial Hospital.

"Bash's story arc in Season 3 is a little bit different than what we've seen!" Haq shared earlier this year. "Last season, there was this looming threat of him being kicked out of the hospital and the issue of his medical school papers, and after the generous actions of Dr. Bishop at the end of Season 2, there's no longer the Damoclean sword hanging over his head, so he kind of gets to be a more well-rounded person. He's constantly finding other places to put his love or put his efforts. He doesn't really turn inwards, and we do explore that later on, how necessary it becomes for Bash to find that journey going inwards."

"The balancing act for Mags has always been a struggle," added Laurence Leboeuf, who plays a second-year resident named Magalie. "A lot is going on for Mags this year, a lot is changing, a lot has changed since the beginning, even that she's now in cardiology, and her relationship status. She has no choice but to really find that kind of sane balance where she won't push herself too much. I think Mags is really going to face her past this season."

10 THE AMERICAN BUFFALO

Oct. 16-17 on PBS

NEW SERIES!

Today, there are approximately 350,000 buffalo in the United States, most of them descendants of 77 animals from five founding herds at the start of the 20th century, and their numbers are increasing.

That's a greatly positive turnaround from a very low point in the late 19th century, when America's national mammal, which had once numbered in the tens of millions, was nearly wiped out completely until a diverse and unlikely collection of Americans — including Native American families on reservations in South Dakota and Montana, a legendary Texas cattleman, and a Long Island railroad magnate — started a movement to rescue the majestic creature from extinction.

In The American Buffalo, a two-part, four-hour documentary film airing over two evenings, director Ken Burns and writer Dayton Duncan trace this comeback story as part of a journey through more than 10,000 years of North American history that also chronicles the buffalo's evolution, its significance to the Great Plains and, most importantly, its relationship to the continent's Indigenous people.

11 EXPLORER: LAKE OF FIRE

Thursday, Oct. 26 on NAT GEO

"If we get into trouble, no one is coming to get us." Embarking on an adventure to a location so remote — a place with treacherous terrain, ferocious winds and blinding visibility — you know things will never go as planned.

A team of scientists and mountaineers set out to Saunders Island in the South Atlantic Ocean looking to investigate a "thermal anomaly" that was captured on NASA satellites in 2018. For volcanologist Emma Nicholson, exploring the island's volcano, Mount Michael, is a dream come true, as she believes it could be home to an active lava lake — a scientific wonder so rare (only seven exist in the world) it would be an absolute "once-in-a-lifetime discovery." Cameras painfully follow Nicholson and her small team as they attempt a grueling and dangerous ascent to the mountain's rim. But can they get there with deadly weather closing in?

12 LITTLE BIRD

Thursdays beginning Oct. 12 on PBS

NEW SERIES!

Created by Hannah Moscovitch and Jennifer Podemski, this six-episode Canadian drama series follows Bezhig Little Bird (Darla Contois), who was taken away from her family during "The Sixties Scoop" — a Canadian policy that enabled social services to take Indigenous children from their families and place them in foster homes during the late '50s through the early '80s — as she returns home and attempts to find her birth family. Adopted by a Jewish family in Montreal, Little Bird is now known as Esther Rosenblum, and has just finished her first year of law school in 1985 when she overhears her fiancé's family gossiping about her heritage at their engagement party. Soon after, she leaves Montreal for Saskatchewan with the hope of finding her long-lost relatives. Also starring Janet Kidder, Alanna Bale and Ellyn Jade.

From the Stanford pals' start as self-imagined tech pioneers creating a safer smoking option to the brand's explosive growth and insidious marketing to youths, Big Vape's three episodes pack in testimony from former Juul employees and users who aren't just blowing smoke about their negative experiences. — Damian Holbrook

The Fall of the House of Usher

Available Oct. 12

Having put his spin on the spooky works of Stephen King (Doctor Sleep, Gerald's Game) and modernized the ghostly classics of Shirley Jackson (The Haunting of Hill House) and Henry James (The Haunting of Bly Manor), it was only a matter of time before director Mike Flanagan would turn to the macabre maestro, Edgar Allan Poe. In Flanagan's hands, the 1839 gothic short story becomes a contemporary cautionary tale of greed and hubris. Bruce Greenwood and Mary McDonnell star as pharmaceutical CEO Roderick Usher and his ruthless sister Madeline. Their lineage is imperiled by a shape-shifting menace played by Flanagan regular Carla Gugino, who described Usher in a prior promotional interview as "bat@#$% crazy." We'd expect nothing less. And don't be surprised to find other Poe influences, including characters based on Arthur Gordon Pym (Mark Hamill) and Detective C. Auguste Dupin (Carl Lumbly). — Matt Roush

Neon

Available Oct. 19

Needless to say, the soundtrack will be pretty easy to dance to. "This is a really cool opportunity to showcase some reggaeton artists in a different light," says Oz Rodriguez, who directed the first of the series' eight episodes. "We only know them for their music and music videos. [Now] we get to see them being goofy." — Dylan Ford

Goosebumps

Available Oct. 13 (First 5 Episodes); New Episodes Fridays

R.L. Stine's iconic '90s horror books for kids are getting a tune-up in this 10-episode series, which follows a group of five teens as they uncover maddening mysteries in their small Pacific Northwest town. In the first hour, based in part on Stine's 1992 novel Say Cheese and Die!, football star Isaiah (EastEnders' Zack Morris) unearths a haunted Polaroid camera during a Halloween party, and "bad things start happening," warns exec producer Conor Welch. "The final photo is of him hurt at the end of a game, so he spends the episode trying to make sure that doesn't happen." That's only the scary start of a series featuring plot points from The Haunted Mask, Go Eat Worms! and The Cuckoo Clock of Doom — and an appearance by Slappy, the franchise's fan-favorite living dummy. At the center of all the action is a decades-old tragedy involving the death of high schooler Harold Biddle (Ben Cockell) that has ties to the teens' parents. New teacher Mr. Bratt (Justin Long), who moves into the Biddle house, becomes possessed by Harold. That leads to some of what EP Pavun Shetty calls the series' "authentically funny" scenes. Adds Welch: "To watch Justin possessed by an awkward 15-year-old boy is really hysterical." But maybe keep the lights on for this one, just in case. — Emily Aslanian

Other cast members returning in the new season include Jonathan Majors, who played He Who Remains in Season 1 but this time is Victor Timely, a variant of Kang the Conqueror who was introduced earlier this year at the end of the feature film Ant-Man and the Wasp: Quantumania; Gugu Mbatha-Raw as Ravonna Renslayer; and Tara Strong as the voice of Miss Minutes. Among the newcomers to the cast is Oscar winner Ke Huy Quan as Ouroboros "OB," a TVA agent in charge of tech and repairs.

Set in 1969, the film stars Jackson White as young Jud Crandall (played in the 1989 flick by Fred Gwynne), who discovers his family's role in an age-old curse. Bloodlines is full of frights, famous faces (David Duchovny, Henry Thomas and Pam Grier costar) and King staples such as …

It's set in Maine. King's home state has inspired many of the towns in his works, be it Ludlow in this film, It's Derry or Needful Things' Castle Rock.

There are creepy critters. The Green Mile has a resurrected mouse, Mr. Jingles. Cat's Eye followed a feline that saved a girl and, of course, there's Cujo, the rabid Saint Bernard that could give Pet's undead mutt a bloody run for his money.

Vietnam plays a role. Hearts in Atlantis dealt with the protests, Dolores Claiborne's son died in the war, and Firestarter's assassin was scarred during his service. Here, Jud's pal has come home with way more than just trauma. — Damian Holbrook

Big Vape: The Rise and Fall of Juul

Available Oct. TBA

This addictive, infuriating docuseries charts the origins of the once omnipresent electronic cigarettes created by Adam Bowen and James Monsees. From the Stanford pals' start as self-imagined tech pioneers creating a safer smoking option to the brand's explosive growth and insidious marketing to youths, Big Vape's three episodes pack in testimony from former Juul employees and users who aren't just blowing smoke about their negative experiences. — Damian Holbrook

The Fall of the House of Usher

Available Oct. 12

Having put his spin on the spooky works of Stephen King (Doctor Sleep, Gerald's Game) and modernized the ghostly classics of Shirley Jackson (The Haunting of Hill House) and Henry James (The Haunting of Bly Manor), it was only a matter of time before director Mike Flanagan would turn to the macabre maestro, Edgar Allan Poe. In Flanagan's hands, the 1839 gothic short story becomes a contemporary cautionary tale of greed and hubris. Bruce Greenwood and Mary McDonnell star as pharmaceutical CEO Roderick Usher and his ruthless sister Madeline. Their lineage is imperiled by a shape-shifting menace played by Flanagan regular Carla Gugino, who described Usher in a prior promotional interview as "bat@#$% crazy." We'd expect nothing less. And don't be surprised to find other Poe influences, including characters based on Arthur Gordon Pym (Mark Hamill) and Detective C. Auguste Dupin (Carl Lumbly). — Matt Roush

Neon

Available Oct. 19

The ride from Fort Myers to Florida's music capital in Miami is easy for local rising star Santi (Tyler Dean Flores); the route to stardom is a lot more complicated. And to make it big — or to at least make rent — Santi, with help from friends Ness (Emma Ferreira) and Felix (Jordan Mendoza) and music industry rep Mia (Courtney Taylor), will have to find a way to stand out among the Magic City's best reggaeton artists. Neon features cameos and performances from some of the genre's biggest acts, such as series executive producer and "King of Reggaeton" Daddy Yankee. Needless to say, the soundtrack will be pretty easy to dance to. "This is a really cool opportunity to showcase some reggaeton artists in a different light," says Oz Rodriguez, who directed the first of the series' eight episodes. "We only know them for their music and music videos. [Now] we get to see them being goofy." — Dylan Ford

Goosebumps

Available Oct. 13 (First 5 Episodes); New Episodes Fridays

R.L. Stine's iconic '90s horror books for kids are getting a tune-up in this 10-episode series, which follows a group of five teens as they uncover maddening mysteries in their small Pacific Northwest town. In the first hour, based in part on Stine's 1992 novel Say Cheese and Die!, football star Isaiah (EastEnders' Zack Morris) unearths a haunted Polaroid camera during a Halloween party, and "bad things start happening," warns exec producer Conor Welch. "The final photo is of him hurt at the end of a game, so he spends the episode trying to make sure that doesn't happen." That's only the scary start of a series featuring plot points from The Haunted Mask, Go Eat Worms! and The Cuckoo Clock of Doom — and an appearance by Slappy, the franchise's fan-favorite living dummy. At the center of all the action is a decades-old tragedy involving the death of high schooler Harold Biddle (Ben Cockell) that has ties to the teens' parents. New teacher Mr. Bratt (Justin Long), who moves into the Biddle house, becomes possessed by Harold. That leads to some of what EP Pavun Shetty calls the series' "authentically funny" scenes. Adds Welch: "To watch Justin possessed by an awkward 15-year-old boy is really hysterical." But maybe keep the lights on for this one, just in case. — Emily Aslanian

Other cast members returning in the new season include Jonathan Majors, who played He Who Remains in Season 1 but this time is Victor Timely, a variant of Kang the Conqueror who was introduced earlier this year at the end of the feature film Ant-Man and the Wasp: Quantumania; Gugu Mbatha-Raw as Ravonna Renslayer; and Tara Strong as the voice of Miss Minutes. Among the newcomers to the cast is Oscar winner Ke Huy Quan as Ouroboros "OB," a TVA agent in charge of tech and repairs.

Pet Sematary: Bloodlines

Available Oct. 6

Sometimes, dead is better. That's the lesson in this origin tale about the ominous graveyard in Stephen King's novel, which resurrects anything buried in it. Set in 1969, the film stars Jackson White as young Jud Crandall (played in the 1989 flick by Fred Gwynne), who discovers his family's role in an age-old curse. Bloodlines is full of frights, famous faces (David Duchovny, Henry Thomas and Pam Grier costar) and King staples such as …

It's set in Maine. King's home state has inspired many of the towns in his works, be it Ludlow in this film, It's Derry or Needful Things' Castle Rock.

There are creepy critters. The Green Mile has a resurrected mouse, Mr. Jingles. Cat's Eye followed a feline that saved a girl and, of course, there's Cujo, the rabid Saint Bernard that could give Pet's undead mutt a bloody run for his money.

Vietnam plays a role. Hearts in Atlantis dealt with the protests, Dolores Claiborne's son died in the war, and Firestarter's assassin was scarred during his service. Here, Jud's pal has come home with way more than just trauma. — Damian Holbrook

ORIGINAL DOCUMENTARY

Milli Vanilli

Available Oct. 24

Robert Pilatus and Fabrice Morvan — better known as pop duo Milli Vanilli — shot to worldwide stardom seemingly overnight. Then it all came crumbling down in a giant lip-syncing scandal. Fans destroyed their records and the Grammys rescinded Milli Vanilli's 1990 Best New Artist award. But as this new doc reveals, the "Girl You Know It's True" duo shouldered almost all of the blame for a much wider set of issues. "It's mind-blowing to think that the media just went after us," Morvan told The Guardian. "And never went after the people pulling the reins."
