

NETFLIX

Website: netflix.com

Subscription Cost: Basic $9.99/month (can only watch on one device at a time), Standard $15.49/month (two devices at a time), Premium $19.99/month (four devices at a time).

ORIGINAL SERIES

Murderville Season 1

Available Now

Will Arnett leads this procedural crime comedy based on the British series Murder in Successville. Arnett is senior homicide detective Terry Seattle, for whom every day means a new murder case and a new celebrity guest star as his partner. But each episode's guest isn't being given the script and has no idea what's about to happen to them. Together, the guest star and Terry will have to improvise their way through the case, but it will be up to each celebrity guest alone to name the killer. The guest stars for the six-episode first season are Annie Murphy, Conan O'Brien, Ken Jeong, Kumail Nanjiani, Marshawn Lynch and Sharon Stone.

Human Resources

Available March 18

From the minds behind the award-winning adult animation favorite Big Mouth comes this even edgier and "adult-ier" animated spinoff. The series pulls back the curtain on the daily lives of the creatures – Hormone Monsters, Depression Kitties, Shame Wizards and many more – that help humans journey through every aspect of life, from puberty and parenthood to the twilight years. It quickly becomes clear that though the protagonists are monsters, they have a lot of humanity themselves. The all-star voice cast includes Nick Kroll, Maya Rudolph and David Thewlis reprising their Big Mouth roles, as well as new additions like Aidy Bryant, Brandon Kyle Goodman, Keke Palmer, Randall Park and more.

Worst Roommate Ever

Available March 1

From Blumhouse Television comes this five-part docuseries that highlights four harrowing tales of seemingly harmless roommates turning into real-life nightmares for their unsuspecting victims when their malevolent – and sometimes violent – intentions are revealed. These unsettling true stories chronicle the menace that can be lurking right down the hall, ready to drop their mask of normalcy at any time.

Queer Eye Germany

Available March 9

This is the first international export of America's hit Queer Eye reality format. Similar to the original, in this five-episode series, experts Leni Bolt, David Jakobs, Jan-Henrik Scheper-Stuke, Aljosha Muttardi and Ayan Yuruk guide their mentees toward opening the door to a new and better chapter in life. Over the course of the episodes, the Fab 5 provide inspiration for positive change to the stories of their five everyday heroes – including a young soccer coach's coming out, a single father's way back into dating and a shaken young woman's journey to finally enjoying life.

Pieces of Her

Available March 4

In a sleepy Georgia town, a random act of violence sets off an unexpected chain of events for 30-year-old Andy Oliver (Bella Heathcote) and her mother, Laura (Toni Collette). Desperate for answers, Andy embarks on a dangerous journey across America, during which her view of her mother is forever changed as she pieces together the secrets of Laura's dark past. David Wenham, Jessica Barden, Omari Hardwick and Terry O'Quinn also star in this thriller based on Karin Slaughter's bestselling novel.

RETURNING ORIGINAL SERIES

Bridgerton

Season 2 Available March 25

The hit period drama based on Julia Quinn's novels returns for Season 2, which takes its tale from Quinn's second book, The Viscount Who Loved Me. With Daphne (Phoebe Dynevor) now wed, the focus shifts to her eldest brother, stubborn bachelor Anthony Bridgerton (Jonathan Bailey), who has decided he should settle down.

ORIGINAL FILMS

Tyler Perry's A Madea Homecoming

Available Feb. 25

In 2019, it seemed as if the film A Madea Family Funeral and the stage play Madea's Farewell were Tyler Perry's final words on his most beloved character, Mabel "Madea" Simmons. But Perry is bringing the tough-talking, gun-toting grandmother back for this latest film in the franchise, reprising his role as Madea in this comedy that he produced, wrote and directed, adapting Madea's Farewell. The story centers around the college graduation of Madea's great-grandson. Additional cast members include familiar faces from the Madea franchise, including Tamela Mann (Cora), David Mann (Mr. Brown) and Cassi Davis Patton (Aunt Bam). Additionally, there is a guest appearance from Irish actor Brendan O'Carroll, whose character, Agnes Brown, matches even Madea's comedic prowess.

The Adam Project

Available March 11

Ryan Reynolds, Jennifer Garner, Zoe Saldana, Mark Ruffalo and Catherine Keener headline this sci-fi film about a time-traveling pilot (Reynolds) who teams up with his younger self (Walker Scobell) and his late father (Ruffalo) to come to terms with his past while saving the future.

Black Crab

Available March 18

After about a decade of starring in international blockbusters like the original The Girl With the Dragon Tattoo, actress Noomi Rapace returns to her native country and early filmmaking roots to headline this Swedish action thriller set in a postapocalyptic world torn apart by climate change and war. During a long, harsh winter, six soldiers embark on a covert mission across a frozen archipelago, risking their lives to transport a mysterious package that could end the war.

Love Like the Falling Petals

Available March 24

This romantic drama from Japan is based on the novel by Keisuke Uyama, and is a tale of love that encapsulates the transience and beauty of the country's famed cherry blossoms. After falling in love with his hair stylist, Misaki (Honoka Matsumoto), Haruto (Kento Nakajima) musters up the courage to ask her out. In order to be a man suitable for Misaki, who is working hard toward her goals, Haruto decides to once again strive to be a photographer, a long-abandoned dream of his. However, Misaki contracts a rare disease that makes her age many times faster than most people. Facing the reality of being unable to pass the years at the same speed as their loved one, what will Haruto and Misaki decide to do?

ORIGINAL SPECIAL

Adam by Eve: A Live in Animation

Available March 15

Anime, live action and music by cutting-edge artist Eve all weave together into a dreamlike sonic experience inspired by the story of Adam and Eve. The tale centers on Aki, a high school student who is searching for her best friend, Taki, who has disappeared after describing a dream in which she is attacked by "Hitotsume." At the same time, many other people in Tokyo start to say they have also seen Hitotsume in their dreams. Aki gradually wanders into a strange world created by these mysterious beings, and is guided by Taki's voice to the fictional city of Shibuya, where she can't tell if it's a dream or reality.

Website: tv.apple.com

Subscription Cost: $4.99/month, after a seven-day free trial.

ORIGINAL SERIES

EDITOR'S PICK!

The Last Days of Ptolemy Grey

First Two Episodes Available March 11; Subsequent New Episodes Available Fridays

This six-episode limited series is based on the novel by Walter Mosley, who adapts his story for the screen and serves as executive producer. Samuel L. Jackson (also an executive producer) stars as Ptolemy Grey, an ailing man forgotten by his family, friends and even himself. Suddenly left without his trusted caretaker and on the brink of sinking even deeper into a lonely dementia, Ptolemy is assigned to the care of orphaned teenager Robyn (Dominique Fishback). When they learn about a treatment that can restore Ptolemy's memories, it begins a journey toward shocking truths about the past, present and future.

Lincoln's Dilemma

Available Now

Jeffrey Wright narrates this four-part docuseries that offers a fresh exploration of President Abraham Lincoln and the complex journey to end slavery. Based on acclaimed historian David S. Reynolds' award-winning book, Abe: Abraham Lincoln in His Times, the series features insights from a diverse range of journalists, educators and Lincoln scholars, as well as rare archival materials.

WeCrashed

First Three Episodes Available March 18; Subsequent New Episodes Available Fridays

Jared Leto and Anne Hathaway star in and executive produce this eight-episode limited series inspired by actual events, and the love story at the center of it all, as chronicled in the hit podcast WeCrashed: The Rise and Fall of WeWork. WeWork grew from a single coworking space into a global workspace solutions brand worth $47 billion in under a decade. Then, in less than a year, its value plummeted. What happened?

Pachinko

First Three Episodes Available March 25; Subsequent New Episodes Available Fridays

This international drama series is based on the acclaimed, bestselling novel of the same name, and is told in three languages – Korean, Japanese and English. Epic in scope and intimate in tone, the story begins with a forbidden love and crescendos into a sweeping saga that journeys between Korea, Japan and America to tell an unforgettable story of war and peace, love and loss, triumph and reckoning. "Not only is this a story of my forebears," says creator/writer/showrunner Soo Hugh (The Terror, The Killing), "it's my tribute to them – to all of the 'Sunjas' buried deep in all of our family's history. It's been an incredible honor to bring this series to life with this dedicated and gifted cast and crew."

Website: acorn.tv

Subscription Cost: $5.99/month, $59.99/year; seven-day free trial.

ORIGINAL SERIES

The Chelsea Detective

Season 1 Episodes Available Mondays Beginning March 7

Adrian Scarborough

leads this U.K. mystery drama consisting of four 90-minute episodes as sharp and intuitive Detective Inspector Max Arnold. Following his separation from his art dealer wife, Astrid (Anamaria Marinca), Max lives on a houseboat on the Thames, in London's upscale Chelsea area, just yards from some of the most valuable real estate in Europe. Chelsea is a beautiful borough for beautiful people, but it has a dark underside of violence, greed – and murder. Bodies have a way of showing up, but Max's determination and acuity mean he'll find a way to root out the truth and bring those responsible to justice, regardless of their wealth or status.

Max has assistance in his investigations from his partner, no-nonsense Detective Sergeant Priya Shamsie (Sonita Henry). Also on his team are research and tech queen Detective Constable Jess Lombard (Lucy Phelps), rookie officer DC Connor Pollock (Peter Bankolé) and brilliant, if occasionally daunting, Chief Forensics Officer Ashley Wilton (Sophie Stone).

NEW SEASONS

The Good Karma Hospital

– First Two Season 4 Episodes Available March 21; Subsequent New Episodes Available Mondays

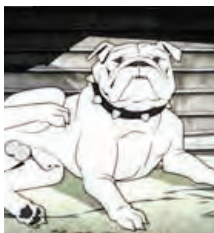

Murdoch Mysteries – Season 15 Episodes Available Mondays Beginning Feb. 28

Website:
amazon.com/primevideo

Subscription Cost: Amazon Prime is $14.99/month, $139/year. Prime Video is $8.99/month; 30-day free trial.

ORIGINAL SERIES

"The Boys" Presents: Diabolical

All Eight Episodes Available March 4

A new season of Prime Video's adult superhero comedy The Boys isn't coming until June, but in the meantime, fans can enjoy this similarly themed, eight-episode animated anthology entry in the franchise. Each episode runs 12-14 minutes (described by Prime as "fun-sized") and features its own animation style as it reveals unseen stories from within the Boys universe, brought to life by Awkwafina, Garth Ennis, Eliot Glazer and Ilana Glazer, Evan Goldberg and Seth Rogen, Simon Racioppa, Justin Roiland and Ben Bayouth, Andy Samberg and Aisha Tyler.

LOL: Last One Laughing Canada

Episodes 1-4 Available Now; Episodes 5 & 6 (Season Finale) Available March 4

This six-part competition is the latest adaptation of the popular and international LOL series format. This installment pits 10 of Canada's top comedic talents against each other in a celebrity showdown where anything can happen. Their objective is to eliminate others from the house by making each other laugh, while not laughing themselves. The comedian who doesn't crack a smile and outlasts the others wins $100,000 for their charity of choice. The featured Canuck competitors are: Debra DiGiovanni, Dave Foley, Tom Green, Jon Lajoie, Mae Martin, Colin Mochrie, Brandon Ash Mohammed, Andrew Phung, Caroline Rhea and K. Trevor Wilson.

ORIGINAL DOCUMENTARY

Lucy and Desi

Available March 4

Amy Poehler directed this documentary that tells the story of groundbreaking comedian Lucille Ball, who changed the way the world viewed comedy and paved the way for scores of women who followed in her footsteps. Using never-before-seen archival film and personal still photos, along with first-person narratives, the film traces Lucy's surprising journey – as a performer as well as a businesswoman – and illuminates her upheaval of male-dominated comedy, breaking barriers for women in entertainment and beyond.

FEATURE FILM EXCLUSIVE

Master

Available March 18

Regina Hall, Zoe Renee and Amber Gray star in writer/director Mariama Diallo's directorial debut, which made its premiere at this year's Sundance Film Festival. In the thriller, three women strive to find their place at a prestigious Northeastern university as old as the country, and whose frosty elitism may hide something more sinister. When anonymous racist attacks target a Black freshman – who insists she is being haunted by ghosts of the school's past – each woman must determine where the real menace lies.

EXCLUSIVE SPECIAL

The 57th Academy of Country Music Awards

Streams Live March 7 at 8pm ET

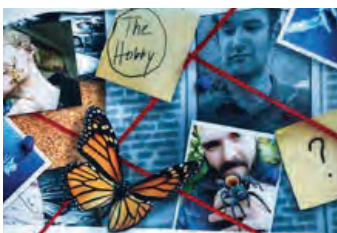

This year's celebration honoring the best in country music will be held live in Las Vegas and available on Prime Video only, marking the first time that a major awards show has live-streamed exclusively. The two-hour event will stream without commercial interruption. Music legend Dolly Parton, whose new album Run, Rose, Run drops on March 4, will host the ceremony, which awards and showcases country's biggest names and emerging talent.

Website: amazon.com/imdbtv

Subscription Cost: IMDb TV is Amazon's free, ad-supported streaming service.

ORIGINAL SERIES

Bug Out

Available March 4

This four-part investigative docuseries holds the magnifying glass to one of the most bizarre heists in recent history: the theft of $50,000 worth of living bugs from the Philadelphia Insectarium. As detectives with the Philadelphia Police Department investigate, they find themselves entering a shadowy subculture and a criminal underworld like no other, and discovering that the Insectarium may not be the wholesome family museum it appears to be. Bug Out dives into this whodunit through exclusive interviews with insect collectors, bug smugglers and the law enforcement agencies charged with looking into this case.

Website:
discoveryplus.com

Subscription Cost: Starts at $4.99/month; ad-free version available for $6.99/month. Verizon customers will receive up to 12 months of discovery+ on select plans. Seven-day free trial.

ORIGINAL SERIES

Restaurant Rivals: Irvine vs. Taffer All Three Episodes Available March 3

Robert Irvine and Jon Taffer are the best at turning around the fortunes of failing businesses in the restaurant and hospitality industry. Now, these larger-than-life personalities face off for the first time in this three-episode series. Irvine is a highly acclaimed chef with a model that has always put food first, with the belief that if the menu is amazing, the people will come. Taffer is a businessman who believes it is all about creating an overall dining experience that makes for a successful restaurant. In each hourlong episode of Restaurant Rivals, the men put their guiding principles to the test as they help a pair of struggling restaurant owners back to profitability.

Legacy: In the Shadow of Greatness Available March 8

In this sixpart docuseries, Emmy-winning filmmaker Jonathan Hock follows the athletic pursuits of the children of sports icons Dwyane Wade, Evander Holyfield and Randall Cunningham as they attempt to make their own marks on the world.

Million Dollar Wheels First Two Season 1 Episodes Available Feb. 28; Subsequent New Episodes Available Mondays

Jamie Foxx is an executive producer on this unscripted series that offers an exclusive look into the world of high-end car sales and everything it takes to meet the high expectations of famous clients. Some of those notable clients making appearances in the series will be Foxx, Kim Kardashian, Tom Holland and others.

Inventions That Changed History Available March 31

This inspiring six-part limited series tells the unbelievable stories behind our culture's most notable inventions.

ORIGINAL DOCUMENTARIES

"Alien Abduction: Betty and Barney Hill" & "Alien Abduction: Travis Walton"

Available Now

Two new recently released documentaries in the Shock Docs franchise explore two of the most famous purported alien-abduction cases: those of Betty and Barney Hill, and Travis Walton.

BLACK VOICES HUB

In late January, discovery+ introduced a Black Voices Hub, which features programming spotlighting the African American community. While the hub launched just ahead of Black History Month, it will live on the streaming platform year-round with curated series, documentaries and specials. Some of the initial new content on this hub, all available now, includes:

Profiled: The Black Man – A four-part docuseries examining the widespread stereotypes that have negatively impacted the lives of Black men in America for centuries.

Uprooted – A documentary about a woman seeking the truth behind the 1986 hanging death of her brother, Keith Warren, which was ruled a suicide despite no autopsy or criminal investigation having taken place.

Last Exit: Space Available March 10

Director Rudolph Herzog and his father Werner Herzog, who executive produces and narrates this film, take viewers on an unforgettable journey into space and the concept of living beyond Earth.

SUNDANCE NOW

Website: sundancenow.com

Subscription Cost: Seven-day free trial then $6.99/month or $59.99/year.

U.S. EXCLUSIVE SERIES

Echos

All Six Season 1 Episodes Available March 3

In this German thriller, 20-somethings Max (Nick Romeo Reimann), Nellie (Lilly Dreesen) and Janosch (Yasin Boynuince) find themselves up against shadowy foes and unexpected consequences after things go horribly wrong at an illegal rave.

Wisting

Season 2, Part 1 (Episodes 1-4)
Available March 31

As the Norwegian police procedural thriller returns, a convicted killer escapes from Detective William Wisting's (Sven Nordin) custody and must be stopped before he and an accomplice continue their spree.

Website: disneyplus.com

Subscription Cost: $7.99/month or $79.99/year.
Free with some Verizon Wireless plans for a limited time.

FEATURE FILM EXCLUSIVE

Turning Red

Available March 11

Originally slated for theatrical release, this latest animated feature film from Disney/Pixar now debuts in the United States exclusively on Disney+. The story introduces Mei Lee (voice of Rosalie Chiang), a confident, dorky 13-year-old torn between staying her mother's dutiful daughter and the chaos of adolescence. Her protective, if not slightly overbearing, mother, Ming (voice of Sandra Oh), is never far from her daughter – an unfortunate reality for the teenager. And as if changes to her interests, relationships and body weren't enough, whenever Mei Lee gets too excited (which is practically always), she "poofs" into a giant red panda.

FEATURE FILM STREAMING PREMIERE

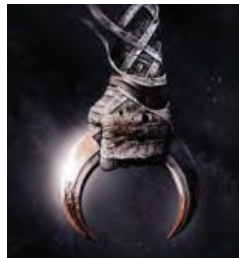

West Side Story

Available March 2 on Disney+

Young love, tense rivalries – Steven Spielberg's take on the classic film West Side Story features Ansel Elgort as Tony, Ariana DeBose as Anita and newcomer Rachel Zegler as Maria. Rita Moreno, star of the original film, also makes an appearance as Valentina, the owner of a corner store.

ORIGINAL SERIES

Moon Knight

Available Wednesdays
Beginning March 30

Oscar Isaac stars in the six-episode series as mild-mannered Steven Grant, who becomes plagued with blackouts and memories of another life. Steven discovers that he has dissociative identity disorder and shares a body with mercenary Marc Spector. As Steven/Marc's enemies converge upon them, they must navigate their complex identities while thrust into a deadly mystery among the powerful gods of ancient Egypt, particularly the moon god Khonshu, for whom the mortal becomes a conduit. The series costars Ethan Hawke as the antagonist, cult leader Arthur Harrow.

ORIGINAL FILM

Cheaper by the Dozen

Available March 18

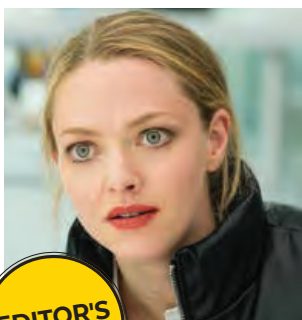

Gabrielle Union and Zach Braff star in this reboot and reimagining of the beloved family comedy film franchise.

Website: hulu.com

Subscription Cost: Limited commercials $6.99/month or $69.99/year, commercial-free $12.99/month, Live (plus library with limited commercials) $69.99/month, Live (commercial-free library) $75.99/month. Free trial available.

ORIGINAL SERIES

The Dropout

First Three Episodes Available March 3; Subsequent New Episodes Available Thursdays

EDITOR'S PICK!

This eight-episode limited series tells the unbelievable tale of Elizabeth Holmes (Amanda Seyfried), once the world's youngest self-made female billionaire, and how she duped everyone into investing in her medical company Theranos before losing everything. The series also stars Naveen Andrews as Sunny Balwani, Holmes' boyfriend and business partner, as well as Utkarsh Ambudkar, William H. Macy, Laurie Metcalf, Dylan Minnette, Alan Ruck and Sam Waterston.

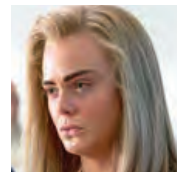

Life & Beth

All 10 Episodes Available March 18

Beth (Amy Schumer) has a pretty great life – she works as a wine distributor in Manhattan and is in a relationship with a successful guy. But when a sudden event causes Beth to take another look at her past, her present changes forever. She attempts to build a stronger, bolder, more authentic life for herself while honoring the person she was before. Also stars Michael Cera, Violet Young, Laura Benanti, Michael Rapaport and Susannah Flood.

EDITOR'S PICK!

The Girl From Plainville

First Three Episodes Available

March 29; Subsequent New Episodes Available Tuesdays

Inspired by a true story and based on the Esquire article of the same name by Jesse Barron, The Girl From Plainville looks at teen Michelle Carter's (Elle Fanning) "texting-suicide" case. The eight-episode limited series explores her relationship with her boyfriend, Conrad Roy III (Colton Ryan), and the events that led to his suicide and Carter's eventual conviction of involuntary manslaughter. Also stars Chloë Sevigny, Cara Buono, Kai Lennox and Norbert Leo Butz.

HBOmax

Website: hbomax.com

Subscription Cost: $9.99/month or $99.99/year with ads; $14.99/month or $149.99/year ad-free.

ORIGINAL SERIES

EDITOR'S PICK!

Our Flag Means Death Available March

From creator David Jenkins and executive producer Taika Waititi comes this hilarious new comedy (very) loosely based on the true adventures of 18th century would-be pirate Stede Bonnet (Rhys Darby, Flight of the Conchords). After trading in the seemingly charmed life, Stede, a pampered aristocrat, takes a go as the captain of the pirate ship Revenge. While every pirate captain captains pirates differently (traditional pirating involves killings, floggings and a lot of abuse), Stede thinks otherwise. His ship includes amenities like a rec center, a jam room and a full library. He also thinks his crew should share, learn to sew and talk things out, as pirating has all sorts of mental pressures. Clearly struggling to earn the respect of his potentially mutinous crew, Stede's fortune changes after a fateful run-in with the infamous Captain Blackbeard (Waititi), history's greatest pirate.

EDITOR'S PICK!

Somebody Somewhere Available Now

Already renewed for a second season, this endearing comedy stars comedian and singer Bridget Everett as Sam, a true Kansan who struggles to fit the hometown mold. As Sam grapples with loss and acceptance, singing is her saving grace and leads her on a journey to discover herself and a community of outsiders (Jeff Hiller as Joel is precious!) who don't fit in but don't give up, showing that finding your people, and finding your voice, is possible. Anywhere. Somewhere.

Minx

Available Thursday, March 17

The 10-episode Max Original comedy airs two new episodes each week through April 14. The series is set in 1970s Los Angeles and centers around Joyce (Ophelia Lovibond), an earnest young feminist who joins forces with a low-rent publisher (Jake Johnson) to create the first erotic magazine for women.

About Last Night

Available Now

This exclusive – uncensored – celebrity competition series/party is hosted by Ayesha and Stephen Curry. Some may consider it couples therapy, but the show is a fun, personal look into the off-camera lives of celebrity couples.

COMEDY SPECIAL

Moses Storm: Trash White

Available Now

Comedian Moses Storm recounts memories of growing up poor, dumpster diving for food, breaking into country clubs, squaring off with carjackers while naked, and more in this hilarious and heartfelt debut stand-up special.

britbox

Website: britbox.com/us/

Subscription Cost: Free 7-day trial, then $6.99/month or $69.99/year

ORIGINAL SERIES

Murder in Provence

Available March 1

While, as its title indicates, this mystery series adapted from the books by M.L. Longworth is set in the south of France, it marks the first U.K. and U.S. coproduction for BritBox, the streaming service created by the BBC and ITV. Described as “decadent” and “escapist,” Murder in Provence follows Antoine Verlaque (Roger Allam, Endeavour), an investigating judge in Aix-en-Provence, and his romantic partner, Marine Bonnet (Nancy Carroll, Father Brown), as they investigate the murders, mysteries and dark underbelly of their idyllic home. Their efforts are aided by Hélène (Keala Settle, The Greatest Showman), a detective and Antoine's trusted confidante. Each episode investigates and resolves a new murder, with Verlaque and Bonnet's relationship serving as the core element that ties series together.

Website: peacocktv.com

Subscription Cost: Peacock Free tier is no cost; Peacock Premium is $4.99/month; Peacock Premium Plus (ad-free) is an additional $5/month.

ORIGINAL SERIES

Joe vs Carole

Season 1 Available Thursdays Beginning March 3

The fascination with the larger-than-life but all-too-real characters first introduced to most viewers in Netflix's Tiger King docuseries continues in this hourlong, dramatized version of events that is based on the Joe Exotic podcast. In the limited series, Kate McKinnon plays Carole Baskin, a big cat enthusiast who learns that fellow exotic animal lover Joe "Exotic" Schreiber (John Cameron Mitchell) is breeding and using his big cats for profit.

Bust Down

All Six Season 1 Episodes Available March 10

Chris Redd, Jak Knight, Langston Kerman and

Sam Jay star in this half-hour comedy that follows four casino employees living dead-end lives who attempt to find self-worth in their bad ideas.

FEATURE FILM STREAMING PREMIERE

The 355

Available Now

This espionage thriller that hit theaters in January and is now available to stream exclusively on Peacock. When a top-secret weapon falls into mercenary hands, wild card CIA agent Mason "Mace" Brown (Jessica Chastain) will need to join forces with rival badass German agent Marie (Diane Kruger), former MI6 ally and cutting-edge computer specialist Khadijah (Lupita Nyong'o), and skilled Colombian psychologist Graciela (Penélope Cruz) on a lethal, breakneck mission around the globe to retrieve it.

Website: paramountplus.com

Subscription Cost: $4.99/month or $49.99/year with limited commercials, $9.99/month or $99.99/year commercial free. Free trial available.

ORIGINAL SERIES

Big Nate

First Eight Episodes Available Now; More Episodes Coming At A Later Date

This animated series is based on the bestselling children's books and comic strip written and drawn by acclaimed author and cartoonist Lincoln Peirce. Produced by Nickelodeon Animation Studio, it follows precocious 11-year-old Nate Wright (voice of Ben Giroux) and his best friends as they navigate sixth grade with humor and style.

Star Trek: Picard

Season 2 Episodes Available Thursdays Beginning March 3

Originally slated for February, the new season of this Star Trek spinoff now debuts this month. Patrick Stewart is back in his iconic role as Jean-Luc Picard in the 10-episode second season of his character's stand-alone series (it has also already been renewed for Season 3).

Halo

Available March 24

After years of buzz and anticipation, this live-action series adaptation of the popular and influential video game franchise finally makes its debut. Boasting Steven Spielberg among its executive producers, Halo stars Pablo Schreiber as the Master Chief, Spartan-117, and Natascha McElhone as Dr. Halsey, creator of the Spartan super soldiers.

ORIGINAL FILMS

The In Between

Available Now

This supernatural love story centers on a teenage girl, Tessa (Joey King, also a producer), whose heart opens to Skylar (Kyle Allen). When a car accident takes Skylar's life, while Tessa survives, she searches for answers and soon believes that Skylar is attempting to reconnect with her from the afterlife.

Three Months

Available Now

This coming-of-age, darkly comedic film from MTV Entertainment Studios stars Troye Sivan as Caleb, a punk gay teenager in Miami who, on the eve of his high school graduation, discovers he may have HIV. While he waits three months to find out his results, Caleb finds love in the most unlikely of places.